

LAURIUM HISTORIC DISTRICT

L A U R I U M

Nearly all of the village of Laurium is included in the Laurium Historic District, which was listed in the National Register of Historic Places during 2005. Other recent national register listings have included the Vista Theater and Negaunee Fire Station in Negaunee, the Longyear Building in Marquette, Pickle Barrel House at Grand Marais, former Kinross Township Hall and School at Kinross, J. W. Wells State Park near Cedar River, Frank A. and Rae Harris Kramer House in Gaylord, Douglas House at Lovells in Crawford County, and the Fishing Tug Katherine V in Alpena. At the behest of the communities involved, the SHPO has defined boundaries for districts eligible for the National Register of Historic Places in the following communities: Alpena, Ishpeming, Marquette, Negaunee, Sault Ste. Marie, and West Branch.
